"Respect for the Land and Each Other"

J. STECKLE HERITAGE HOMESTEAD Plans a Monster Mash!

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

October 15, 2007

THE J. STECKLE HERITAGE HOMESTEAD INVITES WATERLOO REGION TO ENJOY SOME SPOOKY HALLOWEEN FUN AT THE 14TH ANNUAL HALLOWEEN FAMILY FUN DAYS

HALLOWEEN Family Fun Days will be held at the J. Steckle Heritage Homestead, 811 Bleams Road, Kitchener.

Halloween Family Fun Days will occur on:

Saturday, October 27 – 10:00 am to 5:00 pm

Sunday, October 28 – Noon to 5:00 pm

Admission costs only $5.00 per person and includes family entertainment, interactive children's displays, visits with farm animals, Native Canadian Re-enactors, craft areas; additional pricing for Haunted Barn, Face Painting, and concession. This event promises a special opportunity for children/youth and families to enjoy a Halloween event on a working farm right within the city limits of Kitchener.

This exciting event promises thrilling Halloween fun for the entire family! A few of the highlights include:

- ✓ Kitchener's favourite Haunted Barn filled with shivers and delights
- ✓ Amazing entertainment acts by some of the area's most talented singers and dancers and magicians
- ✓ Face painting – become a witch, ghoul or even a skeleton!
- ✓ Children's craft area where the children can create a Halloween or Autumn craft
- ✓ Captivating stories told by the Baden Storytellers
- ✓ Fortunes told by mysterious fortune tellers
- ✓ Informative and interactive community displays
- ✓ Native Canadian Re-enactors which will display Waterloo Region's Native history
- ✓ Farm animals to pet
- ✓ Delicious treats and refreshments available for purchase

This year, all funds raised will go directly towards the programming of J. Steckle Heritage Homestead. J. Steckle Heritage Homestead promotes respect for the land and each other, building community among children and families through unique hands-on educational programs and recreational opportunities that focus on agricultural, the environment and the rich heritage of Waterloo Region.
